The wine Irujo Joven DO Rioja is dressed in a beautiful cherry red color, with a good layer, with a violet rim. Clean and bright.

In direct smell it shows its marked Tempranillo varietal character. Fruity and fresh (black and red berries), hints of liquorice. With some dairy touch. Fruity and freshness appear in the retronasal route, with good intensity. It is a wine with an expressive and appetizing attack.

Medium-bodied, with quality tannins present, which give it muscle and character. It has good acidity and well integrated, which gives it freshness.
